What it says: How im still alive today to write this is a mystery	I like: how it actually seems like you were annoyed and you can feel the pain in what that means
What it says: Slavery should have been gone for good and should have never been started.	Maybe you should Add/subtract/Revise: Why? I think you should of actually told why you think this.
What it says: How im still alive today to write this is a mystery	My questions: 1. How is it that you are alive and others starved 2. How is it a mystery?

Plan of Action:

1. I could include it in the sentence next time.
2. I could write in the next sentence how there still alive.
3. I can write more on the sentence of how it is a mystery.

What it says: Slaves are nasty people there. lazy, so these days I think they should be the hard working ones.	I like: how it tells what a slave is like in the mind of a southern plantation owner.
What it says: A lot of slaves I heard have killed them selves but...	Maybe you should Add/subtract/Revise: you could probably write I have heard a lot of slaves have killed them selves but ...
What it says: My slave is treated better than most he gets 10 hours of work and 3 meals a day. he gets three meals a day	My questions: 1. Most plantation owners have more than 1 slave do you only do that to one slave 2. why would you give a slave 3 meals a day.

Plan of Action:

1. ~~No, I have many slaves just im talking about one in general and they all get treated the same.~~
2. ~~You would give them 3 meals because I payed lots of money for them im not gonna starve them to death~~
3. ~~Okay then " I have heard a lot of slaves have killed themselves.~~
